PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Is it Lent Already????

If you are like me it seems as if we just celebrated Christmas and the New Year, so how can it be Lent already? Thankfully, I have my trusty Presbyterian Planning Calendar to help me out in such situations. It is right here let me take a look at it, just a second; sure enough Ash Wednesday this year is on February 10th. As is the custom of our congregation, we will be having a potluck at 6 pm before the Ash Wednesday Service at 7:00. Ash Wednesday is the official beginning of Lent. I have heard some church members talking about another event Fat Tuesday and certain celebrations, but that would be a completely different kind of article....

So, do we need to give up our beer for Lent? It is traditional during Lent to abstain from certain foods or beverages. Christian tradition encourages believers to either practice the discipline of fasting or abstaining from certain foods they otherwise would eat during this liturgical season. This discipline is a reminder that God should be the center of our lives. It is a reminder of how much Jesus suffered for us and our outward sign of our willingness to suffer for him, “(Mat 16:24-27 NIV) Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. {25} For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it. {26} What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? {27} For the Son of Man is going to come in his Father's glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done.

Giving up something for Lent is in many ways like sacrificing for someone we love, it shows our love for God. This kind of denial is, however, not the only way to celebrate Lent. There is another very sound and encouraged spiritual discipline we could choose to pursue during Lent. This comes from Micah, “(Micah 6:6-8 NIV) With what shall I come before the LORD and bow down before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? {7} Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? {8} He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.”

The second commandment of our Lord is to love one another. If we don't want to give up our beer or chocolate for Lent, we could concentrate on trying to be more patient, kind and forgiving. Aren't we supposed to do this anyway? Sure, but goodness knows we can all do better. If you choose to go this route for Lent, don't just formulate a vague goal, "Be kinder to others". Pick a specific person you could be more kind too. Or perhaps, pick a specific behavior you want to exhibit or avoid and keep track of your efforts each day. The wonderful thing about our Lord is he is happy with any effort we make to be more loving either through sacrifice for him or treating our brothers and sisters better.

Peace in Christ,
Mark

At our February 14th worship service we will celebrate the Lord's Supper together as one body of Christ.

We will celebrate Ash Wednesday Services on February 10th with a potluck meal at 6:00 pm and a worship service at 7:00 pm. Come join us for a meal and fellowship. Bring a dish to pass.

The days are getting longer leading us towards spring and the beginning of Lent. Please join the deacons on Wednesday, February 10 for Ash Wednesday. Bring your favorite dish to pass and share a potluck meal at 6 pm. Service will be held at 7 pm.

There will be an afternoon of fun and creativity on Saturday, February 20th from 2-5 pm when Sue Slager from Lushes With Brushes brings supplies and enthusiasm to our social hall. To be a part of this Food Pantry fundraiser sign-up on the bulletin board outside the office or call the office. The cost is only $30 and class is limited to 30 painters. You'll go home the proud owner of a beautiful cross painting to see you through the Lenten season til Easter.

Seasons of Life

Last month we made a few promises, some of which we have broken just because we are human. Every day we have to make judgments, as parents, grandparents, great grandparents, and members of our churches. I sure hope the Myers family is judged fairly for who we are and want to be.

Recently I read an article about a man who had four sons and he wanted them to not judge things too quickly, so he sent each of them on a quest to take a look at a particular pear tree that was some distance away.

The first son went during the winter, the second son during spring time, the third son during the summer, and the youngest of the four in the fall.

When they had all gone, and finally returned, he asked them together to describe what they had seen.

The first son who had gone during the winter said the tree was bent and ugly, and no leaves. The son who had left during the spring, said the tree was beautiful with buds, and full of promise.

The third son disagreed with them all and said the tree was laden with blossoms that smelled so sweet and looked so beautiful and it was one of the most beautiful trees he had ever seen.

The last son disagreed with all his brothers because he said it was ripe, dropping all its fruit, and was full of life and fulfillment.

Now, how could there be such a difference in what they saw on the very same tree?

The father said that they were all correct, because they had seen only one season of the Pear tree's life. He told his sons that you can't judge a tree nor can we judge a person by only one season. The essence of who they are, and the pleasure, joy, and love that comes from that life, can only be measured at the end when all the seasons are up.

This meaningful story proves that if you give up during the winter, you will miss the promise of spring, the beauty of summer, and the fulfillment of fall. Don't let the last couple of winters in Sault Ste. Marie, prevent us from witnessing the beauties that will surely follow.

If our church family, our neighbors, and friends, can persevere through the difficult patches, better times will come, as you all have been a part of the seasons of my life.

May God keep you in his care through all the seasons of your life.

FRIENDSHIP CARDS

This month, don't just send valentines; be a valentine! Create these Friendship Cards to express love through kind acts for your loved ones — all month long.

What you need:

- 29 index cards
- A small box or container
- Colored pens or glitter pens
- Stickers

What you do:

1. On each card, write something nice you can do for other people. Ideas include "Give someone a hug," "Clean someone's room," "Read to someone" and so on. You can use colored pens to draw a picture.
2. Decorate the box or container. Place the cards inside.
3. Each day in February, select a card and do that nice thing for someone!

True Friendship

What makes someone a good friend?
The Bible offers lots of advice about true friendship.
