PASTOR'S MESSAGE

I have heard from many Christians, many good people say that they are nervous or at least unsettled when listening to national and international news. These days it seems to be all bad news. One of the things we must remember as Christians, the news should never define us. It should never shape us. The news should never be what we turn to for understanding. Jesus is the one we are to turn to for all of these and more, John 14:27 "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." Jesus came to give us peace. Jesus came to give us a lasting and fulfilling peace. He came to give us his Spirit, John 14:16-17 "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever--the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you."

Paul writes about this in his letter to Timothy; 2 Timothy 1:7 " For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline." When Jesus promised his apostles peace at the last supper, they were an occupied people under the rule of Rome and would be persecuted by Rome and even their own people for their witness to him. When Paul wrote these words to Timothy; Rome was rarely not at war, their leaders were far worse than any presidents we have ever had and Timothy would be persecuted for his witness to Jesus. If Jesus and the Holy Spirit could give these individuals peace in such situations, what can the Lord do for us?

Yes there are scary things in the world. Yes bad nations and bad international actors are doing horrible things. One thing they can't do is take our peace if we abide in Jesus. What they can't do is thwart the will of God. What they can't do is delay the day when Jesus will return. Until that day, let us count our blessings, thank God for what we have been given and jealously guard the peace Jesus came to give us.

Peace in Christ,

Mark

1 Thessalonians 5:17

NRSV—"Pray without ceasing"

NIV "Pray continually"

CSB— "Pray constantly"

The Bible contains many cryptic messages or commands. Let us together look at some of these sentences or words. I think of Brother Paul in 1st Thessalonians 5:17, "Pray without ceasing." I would translate this verse "do not stop praying."

Dear Paul, I understand what you are attempting to tell us. However; I simply cannot do this. Not even Pope Francis can do this. I do not have the strength of body to kneel and pray all day. Now, I believe that you are not speaking to us about our physical posture.

I believe Paul is exhorting us to look in a different direction—that is a spiritual connection. Paul urges us to keep God and His son, Jesus Christ, always before us. Jesus is foremost in our minds, in our work, in all our thoughts, in a all our expectations. Jesus is first. Jesus is our sovereign king and our blessed Savior. Him we worship and adore. He is always on our mind and so we can pray without ceasing.

This is the month for graduation, and commencement speakers do their best to direct their thoughts toward those students who have reached another plateau in their young life, and have graduated from high school.

Graduation day occurs once from high school and once from college.

There were speakers at each graduation and honestly I do not recall anything that was said from the podium since graduating both from high school or college going back to Central High School and the University of Tulsa, in Oklahoma.

I do recall one of my high school teachers who I had for math who was Mr. Byrd. I had him for home room where he never missed a day of school for thirty five years. He came from the hills of North Carolina and he was thirteen before he ever "went to town." He had overalls on and the store keeper in the valley shooed him away because he was a homely looking bare footed boy, and the owner didn't want him around.

Mr. Byrd was a strong lad, cut wood for the family, did all the chores, hunted raccoons, and was an outdoors man to the nth degree. He attended the University of North Carolina and graduated with a degree in mathematics. He was smart, dedicated and determined.

He was always at school an hour before classes began and so was I an early riser. One day I came into an empty room and Mr. Byrd was putting something on his lip. Curious, I asked him about his lip and he told me it was mange cure. He said that if it is good enough for his dogs, it was good enough for him. I knew right then he was my kind of a man.

Mr. Byrd called roll alphabetically and he used your full name like Donald, Jonathan, William, etc. He said geometry was our first challenge in life and we needed to be addressed in a formal manner. not neighborhood language.

He also talked about honesty before he handed out test booklets. He would ask each time he passed out the test booklet, "Who was the man in ancient Greece who went out at night with a lantern in search of an honest man.? Even if you knew the answer prior to his asking, you would say, " Diogenes" because this was Mr. Byrd's moment and he would continue saying, "remember, every tub sits on its own bottom. In other words don't grow cross eyed trying to look on the other persons paper."

Mr. Byrd was folksy in what he taught. He would say things like, "you can dip just as much with a little dipper as you can with a big one, but you have to keep a dipping."

He was the most influential teacher I ever had.

35th Annual War Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Flea Market

Saturday, June 3, 2017 8 am - 1:30 pm

Annual event to be held at Kaine's Rink located on East Easterday Avenue just east of Easterday/Johnston intersection. Donations needed.

Youth Group finished up the year May 14. We spent our meeting organizing all the food that was donated from the Post Office Food Drive. The students helped to restock the pantry and organize the food. It was great to see the amount of food that was collected and showed good community support.

We have been so blessed with the students who gave their time to Youth Group this year. We have enjoyed getting to know each student and see their growth in Faith. God had his hands on the hearts of these students this year.

At service on May 28, we will be honoring our seniors, Ben Reattoir, Ryan Sanderson, Chris Larson, Quentin Switzer who we will miss very much. These young men have been great leaders and we wish them well in their futures as they continue their journey after high school.

Throughout the summer we will have fun meetings or outings to keep all the students in touch. Watch the newsletter and updates to see what we are doing next.

As always thank you for your prayers and support for our group.
