PASTOR'S MESSAGE

By now all church members should have received an e-mail from me (pastor@soopresbyterian.org). If you did not, either we don't have your correct e-mail or it is in your spam folder. Just let Denise know and we will be happy to send another e-mail.

What is the e-mail in regards to? The church has subscribed to RightNow Media. This is a video service like Netflix. The e-mail has directions for setting up an account. The good news is this service is free for individual church members since we already subscribe as a church. The great news is it contains Christian content. On the site one can find children's videos, bible studies, topic driven videos from Christian authors and a host of other videos. This site has made a substantial difference in many Christian's lives in churches across this country just like ours. The opportunity to view these videos and the impact they can have on one's life is exciting. The videos on this site come from a wide array of Christian perspectives. Just as with any video service, there will some videos we like and some we might not.

One of the strengths of the Presbyterian Church is it has traditionally been a denomination that has never limited or urged limiting access to materials or works of art. From its very inception, the constitution of the Presbyterian Church declares that each individual is free to make his or her own choices as, "Jesus alone is Lord of the conscience". It is not for a church or ecclesiastically body to make decisions for the individual. As such, it is up to each of us to decide what nourishes his or her our own soul. This individual process of discernment is, of course, informed by the Holy Spirit and Scripture.

There are a number of theological and even social issues where Christians of good character can and do disagree. While most of the videos will avoid these issues, some won't. We encourage individuals to make use of this video service. We also encourage individuals in line with the spirit of our denomination, to pick and choose according to their conscience informed by the Scriptures and the Spirit. We hope you enjoy this gift and hope it strengths your walk with Christ.

Peace in Christ,

Mark

Jeanne Gantz
May 31, 2017

It may be summer break, but the deacons are still out and about.

We are grateful to all of those who support our efforts to feed Jesus' sheep. Your donations of food and funds are always appreciated. We'd also like to thank all of those who participated in the Meijer Simply Give campaign. We are waiting to hear regarding the funds that will be available to us to purchase food. Recently, we were recipients of surplus food including meat from the Salvation Army.

An opportunity to lend a hand will be at the Community Mobile Food Pantry distribution at JKL Bahweting School on July 12 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. A truck will have 10,000 pounds of food for anyone who needs it. Recipients are requested to supply their own boxes and bags. Items will include fruit, vegetable, dairy and baked goods. Contact Kristen Corbiere at kcorbiere@jkl.school.org if you would like to be a volunteer.

As always, the deacons are looking for people to be a part of their ministry to visit those who cannot make it to church or need a listening ear. Please continue to reach out to the deacons for prayers and making us aware of those who need visiting or transportation.

Yours in Christ,
Jeanne

John 11:35

Jesus wept—CSB, KJV, RSV, NIV

Jesus began to weep—NRSV

I hope you enjoyed last month's paragraph. This month I want to concentrate on the Bible's shortest verse, John 11:35, "Jesus wept."

Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, is the object of our text. Why did Jesus weep? Jesus was facing Satan, death and evil right in front of Him. He also deeply loved Lazarus. This caused Jesus to burst into tears.

In this passage (periscope) two different Greek words are used for weeping. The weeping of Mary and the Jews with its special verb means simply 'to cry' or 'to shed tears,' The Greek verb for Jesus' crying out contains a touch of 'outrage, anger, and disappointment, We must take into account both Greek verbs to understand John 11:35. I realize how people are confused when Greek words are tossed around. However, we must do this for a correct understanding of our text. Plus, we must remember that the NT was written in Greek.

NOW! Are you ready for some theology? Here we examine the two natures of Jesus: the human and divine. Our faith concerning the two natures of Jesus was defined at the Council of Chalcedon, 451 AD. The key definition states that Jesus is to be "recognized in two natures without confusion, without change, without division, without separation." Whew, what a mouthful! This is a key component of our Presbyterian faith. I have thought about this for many years, but I realize I am only a mere infant in my understanding of this truth. The person of Jesus is awesome, as is His work.

Declaration Day, July 4, 1776

We celebrate American Independence Day on July 4th every year on this date. We declared the idea and the honor of our nation as an independent nation. The Continental Congress approved the wording on July 4, 1776.

After the war of 1812, the Federalist Party began to come apart and the new parties of the 1820's and 1830's all considered inheritors of Jefferson and the Democratic Republicans. Printed copies of the Declaration began to circulate again with the date of July 4, 1776 located at the top.

The deaths of Thomas Jefferson and John Adams on July 4, 1826, may have helped promote the idea July 4 as an important date to be celebrated almost one hundred years later in 1870.

Congress declared July 4th to be our national holiday and celebrations and fireworks dot the horizon particularly at night time. Even youngsters get into the act with sparklers.

We are truly the greatest nation in the world.

Don Myers, CRE

NEWS FROM THE KITCHEN

PW has been busy in the kitchen over the last few months. The cabinets and drawers have all been sorted and relabeled to make it easier to find and put away all items. We have bought and replaced two of the roasters, all the cutting boards, two 20 quart stock pots, one 40 quart stock pot, two sauce pans with lids, added one 14 inch fry pan with lid, and for the grill two turners, on scraper, one press, and some new hot pads and gloves. We also purchased four larger carts. A flat grill top thermometer was donated by Alicia Cottle.

Instructions for the 18 quart roasters is posted over the roasters in the pantry. Two signs have been posted for use of the grill and range by the grill. The manuals for the range, grill, and other appliances are in a folder in the cabinet above the coffee maker. The Public Health Department recently issued several new posters explaining food handling procedures and health safety issues that we all need to be aware of.

Friendship Snack Mix

Life is more interesting when you have a diverse “mix” of friends. Show your variety of buddies how much they mean to you by making this snack for (or with!) them.

What you need:

- 1 cup fish-shaped crackers
- 1 cup chocolate Chex
- 1 cup mini pretzels
- 1 cup peanut butter crackers
- ½ cup mini M&M’s
- Large bowl
- Snack-sized zippered baggies
- Permanent markers
- Foam stickers

What you do:

1. Mix all the food in the bowl.
2. Write a personalized message on each baggie. Decorate with stickers.
3. Measure some snack mix into each baggie. Seal them shut.
4. Share this snack with your friends!
