PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Voice of the Martyrs

The senior high youth group is exploring the realities many Christians face around the world. Specifically, they are focusing on the persecution Christians in the Middle East often face. Life was difficult enough for these Christians in the past. In some Middle East countries, even our “allies”, to convert from Islam to Christianity can result in a death sentence. Freedom of religion as we understand it in this country was not something most Christians in the Middle East enjoyed.

Recently things have gotten much worse for Christians in the Middle East. With the rise of Isis persecution of Christians has gone from something that happened to an end in itself. As Isis has swept through the Middle East they have done horrible things to Christians. The “lucky ones” have all their assets seized and then are forced to become refugees walking on foot for hundreds of miles to reach refugee camps. The unlucky ones are tortured, killed and have their daughters used as objects of gang rape. It is as brutal and evil as humanity gets.

Voice of the martyrs reminds us as Christians of 1 Corinthians 12:26-27, “²⁶If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it. ²⁷Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.” They are an organization that not only tracks Christian persecution around the world, but they help our brothers and sisters in faith. As an organization undertaking such a ministry, they can use our help anyway we can. Prayers are always welcome.

One of the amazing things Voice of the Martyrs is reporting, even as Christians undergo persecution in the Middle East, the doors are opening for God’s word of salvation in Jesus Christ. As individual Christians are remaining faithful in spite of their persecution, they are finding Muslims far more likely to listen to their testimony. Many Muslims are disgusted by the actions of some of their faith and this is resulting in openness to hearing the Gospel, to hearing what Christians believe and why they are willing to suffer. It is profoundly humbling listening to the first person stories of those who have suffered and how in remaining faithful they have been used to open people’s hearts to Christ love. Some are reporting in the past no Muslim would take a bible when they offered, now they are taking the Bibles offered and reading them.

Such stories born out of suffering often surprise us. Thinking about it, though, it should not. If God can save the world through an innocent man dying on a cross, what can't our God do?

Peace in Christ,
Mark

The Deacon's

Bench

The Deacons continued their local ministry at Freighter View with monthly services, as well as visiting, praying, and assisting as needed.

The group partnered with the Textiles Group and sponsored a Quilt Show in September. Fifty-two individuals donated 125 quilts to display to benefit Road to Recovery. The show brought in $2600 through ticket sales to view the quilts and a fee for lunch. We were blessed with many wonderful dishes from our congregation for the lunch, and Cheryl Stevens graciously created a special quilt square necklace with proceeds that also went to the fundraiser.

For those of you who are unfamiliar with this service, Road to Recovery provides free transportation to Petoskey on a regular basis for those needing cancer treatments. It reduces the burden on families to find a way to get a loved one to Petoskey, and makes it easier on the patient not to have to self-drive after a grueling treatment, as well as comfort from other travelers. All of the drivers and workers are volunteers. Many of our congregation have benefit from the van service.

We reviewed the local services available to the area regarding food and our capacity to assist. Our main goal is to provide food assistance for members of our congregation and those families who are in need.

Regarding the pantry, we are only halfway to our goal of $3000 to reopen the pantry. It was determined that one bag of groceries per family per month was not serving the need as well as we would like. At this time, we are maintaining several bags for the office to distribute as needed on an emergency basis, assisting those of whom we are notified who are in need, supporting local food truck deliveries, and holiday baskets (not just Thanksgiving and Christmas). A grant was submitted through Feeding America on behalf of Presbyterian Women with support from several EUP non-profits to provide monthly truck shipments to schools for needy families. If the grant is successful, the shipments will begin next fall. At that point, our congregation could choose to "adopt" a school to assist with the delivery and distribution of food.

We look to you to let us know if you are aware of a family who should be contacted to provide food assistance. It is understood that people do not wish to be embarrassed by their circumstances. But if there is a need, please do not hesitate to let us know. For the sake of discretion, a note can be placed in the Deacons' mail slot, a note in the offering plate, or contact Jeanne Shibley at jjshibley@gmail.com or call 630-1707. As with the prayer chain, any requests are kept private.

NOMINATED BEST EMAIL OF THE YEAR

After being interviewed by the school administration, the prospective teacher said:
 "Let me see if I've got this right.

You want me to go into that room with all those kids, correct their disruptive behavior, observe them for signs of abuse, monitor their dress habits, censor their T-shirt messages, and instill in them a love for learning.

You want me to check their backpacks for weapons, wage war on drugs and sexually transmitted diseases, and raise their sense of self-esteem and personal pride.

You want me to teach them patriotism and good citizenship, sportsmanship and fair play, and how to register to vote, balance a checkbook, and apply for a job. You want me to check their heads for lice, recognize signs of antisocial behavior, and make sure that they all pass the final exams.

You also want me to provide them with an equal education regardless of their handicaps or race and communicate regularly with their parents in English, Zulu or any other language, by letter, telephone, newsletter, and report card.

You want me to do all this with a piece of chalk, a blackboard, a bulletin board, a few books, a big smile, and a starting salary that qualifies me for food stamps.

You want me to do all this, and then you tell me... I CAN'T PRAY?

EMERGENCY
DEFIBRILLATOR

AED

It has come to the Sessions attention that we need to think about the safety and health of our parishioners. One way that we can help secure a safe environment is to have an AED on the premises. An Automated External Defibrillator (AED) would offer our members a better chance of survival if there were to have something happen to them that is heart related. This simple and easy device would be available in case of emergencies. And we also have a member who has offered to give classes in how to use the machine. This machine roughly costs between $1200 to $1700. we are currently looking for donations to help us purchase this machine to help our members. Once the needed amount is raised we will make the purchase and then offer the classes. This will be a great chance for us to get better acquainted with first aid for our fellow family and friends!

VICTORY!

Two completely different events happened in the month of October of significance. On October 2, 1864, one of the worst battles in Civil War history was fought. 2800 Confederate soldiers squared off against 4500 Union soldiers. The battle is forever recorded in American history as one of the worst atrocities that has ever occurred on U. S. soil. After one day of intense fighting, shots continued during the night muffling the cries of Union soldiers. You would think that the battle had been fought for a great cause, fought for some great strategic value to maybe shorten the war, but the truth is, the battle was fought over a mineral. It was a mineral so valuable that more wars have been fought over it than gold. Instead, the battle was engaged over the mineral salt. Here one of the bloodiest battles of the Civil War was fought over Saltville, Virginia, the largest supplier of salt to the Confederate Army.

Now all of this gruesome activity took place in 1864, but in 1982 a completely different activity was taking place in the month of October. Millions of activities take place in this world during the month of October and here is another one, completely different than the Civil War battle.

It was a mild October afternoon that day in Badger stadium in Madison, Wisconsin and it was packed with over 60,000 diehard University of Wisconsin fans. U of W was taking a beating from Michigan State. What seemed odd was when the score became more and more lopsided bursts of cheers and applause kept being heard in the stands. It was only natural that some people began to wonder who these strange people were who were cheering while their team pummeled.

As it turns out 70 miles away from Badger Stadium the Milwaukee Brewers were beating the St. Louis Cardinals in game 3 of the World Series. Many of the Badger fans in the stands were listening to portable radios and responding to something else besides what was happening right in front of their eyes.

While these two stories that happened in October and were almost 100 years apart, it is in many ways what the Christian life is all about. We might be in the midst of horrible circumstances in this world and yet we have something to cheer about. We can see by faith the victory that is ours in Christ
